The TTW program is designed to help Social Security disability beneficiaries: obtain work that may lead to a career, allow them to save more money, and assist them in becoming financially independent all while keeping their health coverage. If you are an adult and receive Social Security disability insurance (SSDI) or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) disability benefits, you qualify for the TTW program. Learn how you can use the TTW program to obtain the services and support you need to go to work.
