GED.com Account Demo Site

- Tool to demonstrate account set-up
 - No need for real email accounts – no more managing multiple accounts just for GED.com account demos
 - Can see the latest GED.com account look and feel – Can experience different profile situations (GEDWorks, accommodations, etc.).
 - Demo sites won't impact GED data, and won't generate emails

GED.com Account Demo Site

- Steps to Use:
 - Navigate to site: <https://ged-demo.jedtest.pw/preLogin2#/signup>
 - First time you use the link it may say that it is an unauthorized/unsafe site, or give you a warning, but you should click through or hit “advanced”
 - The site is completely safe, but this warning is due to the site not intended for general public search or use
 - Sign-up for a GED.com account – just like on GED.com
 - Use a fake or real email address – it will need a typical email format xyx@123.com – use an easy password that you can remember, in case you want to reuse that email demo account
 - No demo accounts are real – don’t generate emails or alerts
 - Do it again, and again, and again
