

GCI IS HIRING

Network
Maintenance
Technician role is eligible for a
$2,500 Hiring
Bonus for new hires!

GCI is looking for trailblazers who thrive on change, as well as respect and support each team member as an individual with their own unique skills. No challenge is too large to conquer within our team environment. Ownership and continuous improvement are everyday occurrences. If you are ready to blaze a trail, then GCI is the place for you.

At GCI our employees are our most valuable resource. This is why we try to create an environment which has many different career paths for individuals interested in a career in telecommunications. Opportunities in GCI include but are not limited to sales and marketing, customer relations, engineering and systems, and programming in all fields of telecommunications.

Network Maintenance Technician

GCI's Network Maintenance Technician's are responsible for maintaining and repairing system wide oversight and quality control of network signal processing. Troubleshoots and repairs problems with transmission levels, and/or equipment failures to included: network analysis, headend and outside plant maintenance and integrity, technical leadership of outside plant maintenance, personnel, and all relevant. The primary customer is "the public" who has purchased and is using company products and services who are considering upgrading/expanding products and services. As well as considering purchasing and/or using GCI facilities' products; immediate customer is Technology Solutions, other departmental personnel and/or outside agencies, vendors, utilities, etc.

How to Apply

- Go to www.gci.com/about/careers
- Scroll down to "Find Your Career" and the search fields.
- You can search for jobs by Job Number, Keywords, Location or put nothing in and see everything that is currently open.
- To see more details about a position, click on the title.
- From this page you can apply for the position by clicking "Apply Now".
- A valid email address is needed to apply and build your candidate profile.
- Once you create your profile, there will be different areas of information to fill out.
- All items in a red font with an asterisk next to them are required.
- A resume can also be uploaded in addition to your work history.
- You will be guided through each section of the application and will be able to return to previous sections at any time.
- When your application is complete, you will receive an email message that your profile has been submitted.

GCI Benefits:

PTO & Holidays

Tuition & Certification Reimbursement

On the Job Training

Insurance, Medical, Dental, Vision

Health Savings Account

Flexible Spending Accounts (Health and Dependent Care)

401K with Company Match

Where service is available, employees enjoy the opportunity to use and test GCI services such as wireless, TV, phone and Internet.

